Finance Docket No. 32187

ENTERGY ARKANSAS, INC., ENTERGY SERVICES, INC. and ARKANSAS ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE CORPORATION's REPLY TO UNION PACIFIC'S REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

Complainants Entergy Arkansas, Inc. and Entergy Services, Inc.

(collectively "Entergy") and Intervenor Arkansas Electric Cooperative Corporation ("AECC") hereby reply to Union Pacific Railroad Company's ("UP") request that the Board schedule oral argument in this case. In support of its request, UP states that argument is necessary to allow it an opportunity to respond to unspecified "misstatements of fact and fallacious arguments". UP attempts to justify its request by stating that an argument will allow it to efficiently address these issues without the need for delay that might otherwise result if it were to file a motion to strike or unauthorized sur-rebuttal.

Entergy and AECC strongly disagree with UP's unsupported accusations that their rebuttal evidence and arguments contain any misstatements of fact or fallacious arguments. The parties in this proceeding have provided extensive factual evidence and argument on issues that have been clearly joined for some time. Not surprisingly, the parties have different views of the facts and arguments. Entergy and AECC are confident that the Board can sort through these issues based on the evidence of record as established in this proceeding without the need for UP to "clarify" its position through oral argument.

Entergy and AECC also disagree that oral argument is necessary in this proceeding to avoid delay, as UP suggests, and note that argument may, in fact, cause delay. However, Entergy and AECC do not oppose UP's request for oral argument as long as it is properly limited to the current record in this proceeding.

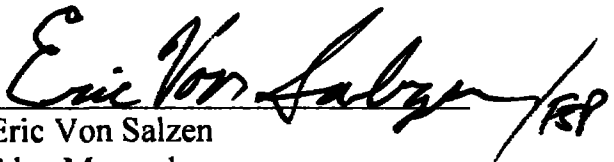

Respectfully submitted,
